Hiroshima's gateway offers air travelers convenient access to sightseeing spots

Hiroshima Airport Passenger Terminal Building

Various hospitality services to welcome visitors

Wide assortment of Hiroshima's local foods and specialties

"Bicycle Hub" unique to Hiroshima

Observation Deck to experience sounds and wind

The airport terminal not only offers services for air travelers, but also serves as a regional base with a variety of functions. Souvenir shops, restaurants, cafes and other shops offer a treasure trove of Hiroshima's local foods and specialties and can be used as stop-off points during leisure activities. The terminal also includes spots such as the Airport Oshigoto Museum and the Observation Deck that offer fun without actually traveling on a plane. And, mobile device charging stations, PC areas and car rental counters as well as a "bicycle assembly space" for cyclists are available.

SERVICE

PC and Internet [2F and 3F]

Digital workspaces allow you to use your PC while sitting at a counter; Free Wi-Fi is also available.

Free Mobile Device Charging Station [1F and 2F]

Each station offers power outlets and USB ports from which you can charge your PC and smartphone free of charge.

Bicycle Hub [1F]

A space for assembly and disassembly of bicycles is equipped with stands with specialized tools, bike pumps and other tools. There are also cyclist dressing rooms for changing your clothes and you can start cycling in minutes.

SERVICE COUNTER

Here you can get information about the airport terminal (airlines), make inquiries about lost and found items, ask about parking discounts (*), rent a Wi-Fi device, and more. There are three counters: one at the departure lobby, one at the domestic arrival lobby and one at the international arrival lobby.
(*) Not available in the international arrival lobby.

Sankeien Garden

Take a stroll while feeling the seasonal air around a Japanese garden based on design motif after Miyajima Island and the Seto Inland Sea

About 6 hectares

Corridor design inspired by Itsukushima Shrine

Stroll garden with a miniature hill and pond

5 minutes' walk from Hiroshima Airport

1. Enjoy the garden scenery while sipping Japanese green tea and tasting Japanese confectionery at "Choken-tei." 2. Weeping cherry blossoms in bloom from late March to early April. 3. Impressive snow-covered scenery in winter. 4. Hydrangea flowers in bloom from early June to early July.

This garden was completed in 1993 to mark the opening of Hiroshima Airport. The garden expresses the rich natural forests, rugged terrain and many valleys and vales of the Chugoku Mountains. The garden also expresses Miyajima Island, the Seto Inland Sea and other scenic spots by using Japanese garden techniques. The name Sankeien is derived from the three images represented: mountain, village and sea. An abundance of seasonal flowers and a variety of plants and trees such as weeping cherry blossoms and Japanese apricot blossoms in spring, hydrangea and Japanese irises in summer, and red maple leaves in autumn provide a brilliance of colors. Enjoy the changing scenery of the four seasons.

Drinks and desserts for a blissful time Panoramic view of the airport

“Tenku Caffe Latte,” a caffe latte with cotton candy on the top, is popular among SNS users

Seasonal decorations make it a popular photo spot

Enjoy lunch while admiring the view from higher ground

Cafe and factory integrated facility

Lunch with delicious breads

Eye-catching Tenku Caffe Latte

“French Toast with Maple Syrup and Nuts,” the cafe’s most popular dish

Spend a relaxing time at the cafe while watching planes take off from and land at Hiroshima Airport. In addition to the breads and buns mainly served by the cafe, you can also enjoy coffee and desserts here. One of the recommended items is French toast made with Hattendo’s cream buns. It is the most popular item on the menus thanks to the perfect delicious harmony between the melty custard cream and crunchy and fluffy bun. Breads and buns served for lunch change on a daily basis. The menu also includes visually appealing drinks and desserts that are often posted by visitors on social media.

My Flora Plant

Cafe for improving gut health based on the concept of “promoting a healthy intestinal flora”
You can learn, tour, and get hands-on experience!

A 9-meter-high fountain that represents the length of the intestines

Improve your gut health and let your inner body bring out your natural beauty

You can take a tour of the factory!

1. The total length of the human small intestine and large intestine is about 9 meters. The GUT SHOWER represents this length with a fountain (only in summer). 2. “My Flora,” a name also used in the name of the facility. 3. Add granola on top of the soft serve frozen dessert yourself. 4. Take a look at the factory from the viewing corridor on the second floor. You can enjoy learning about fermentation and gut health improvement. 5. There are eight seats available on the lawn area where the GUT SHOWER is located. Spread out a picnic blanket and relax.

Based on the concept of “promoting a healthy intestinal flora,” this complex affiliated with a Nomura Dairy Products Co., Ltd. factory offers a variety of experiences for “improving gut health.” The signature drink “My Flora” is categorized as a functional food. It is made by fermenting vegetables with plant-based lactic acid bacteria and improves gut health while reducing constipation. The factory has a corridor where you can see how the products are made and there is also a cafe in the complex. The “Fermentation Experience” tour, designed to promote a healthy intestinal flora, is conducted a few times a month (fee-required reservations), where you can experience the fun of “fermentation.”

Hiroshima Prefectural Animal Welfare Center

New Animal Welfare Center for easy interaction with dogs and cats
Various events are held on Saturdays and Sundays

Backyard tours and other events are held

Here you can easily meet adorable dogs and cats

The Center is also open on Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays!

1. Cat interaction experience. 2. Every Saturday, there is an adoption event for shelter dogs and cats, as well as a pre-adoption seminar, a walking experience with a dog, and other events. On Sundays and public holidays, adoption events, photo exhibitions, flea markets, and other events are held in cooperation with animal welfare organizations and volunteers. 3. The “IDO Shelter Dog and Cat Viewing Room,” where dogs and cats available for adoption are sheltered and live. 4. The “BLUEV Training Room” is used for seminars for potential adopters and dog training classes are held for dogs to learn good behavior.

As a hub that works to create a “society where people and animals live together in harmony,” the Center is committed to the adoption of dogs and cats and raising awareness about animal welfare and proper pet care. The Center moved to this location in August 2023. In addition to providing opportunities to view dogs and cats, the Center hosts events such as seminars on how to live with pets that prove useful to pet owners and holds backyard tours. Everyone, including those who do not have pets, can have fun here. The facilities include the “whitefox Fureai Park” (open lawn space), where agility competitions (dog obstacle races) can be held.
